FROM THE MISSIONS COMMITTEE

We are deeply grateful for the incredible generosity of our congregation in supporting the Missions Christmas offering in December. Your gifts have helped fund both Flint Energies Advocacy Program, assisting local residents in need, and Samaritan's Purse disaster relief efforts, assisting those affected by Hurricane Helene. Through your kindness, we raised just over $4,000, which we were able to divide between these two needed organizations. Your generosity reflects the love of Christ, bringing hope and relief to those in need. Thank you for being a church family that serves with both open hearts and willing hands.
